

Moravian Women's Association Home & Overseas Paper - May 2020

The times we live in!

Can I use this paper partly to remind everyone about the MWA's Facebook page? For those of you who are able, almost every day now, there is a photograph illustrating a word, a phrase, or a sentence from the Daily Watchword. Its usually something I've found on my own daily walk which I take early in the morning when there are not many other people around.

Here's an example from Sunday 18th April:

"He guarded his people as the apple of his eye." The label on this gorgeous little tree promises Cox's orange pippins, lets hope so!"

For those who don't have access to Facebook and other social media, or in addition, I hope you are keeping in touch with other Sisters and your Congregation by phone, post, or calling by with shopping, medicines, newspapers, puzzles, jigsaws, and books. Here is another photo of Sally Moody whom many of you will know, Sally in is lockdown due to a health condition. My dog and I walked over to see her with a flask of tea, and we sat (socially distant) in her garden just chatting. I know that up and down the country, other people are finding similar inventive ways of keeping in touch. Stay well Sally and everyone else in lockdown!

Naomi Hancock - May 2020

